

CERTIFICATE - HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

Students pursuing a graduate certificate in human resource management will focus their coursework on the key functions of human resource management including staffing and selection, training and development, compensation and benefits, management and leadership.

These certificate courses can be applied to an MBA degree at Husson University or be used to augment prior learning.

Required Courses:

BA 641	Human Resource Management	3
Choose four of the following:		12
BA 611	Organizational Behavior
BA 642	Leadership in Business and Professions
BA 741	Staffing & Selection
BA 742	Training & Development
BA 743	Compensation and Reward Management
BA 751	Employee Benefits
CJ 703	Labor and Employment Law
Total Hours		15

Candidates for the Human Resource Management Graduate Certificate are required to complete a minimum of 15 semester credit hours maintaining a 3.0 overall cumulative grade point average.