

ENGLISH

Features of the Program

The Bachelor of Science in English program gives students exceptional written and oral communication skills, training in personal and professional critical thinking, preparation for various fields of graduate study and a sequence of courses that complement most other Husson degree programs. A bachelor's degree in English prepares modern learners for careers in advertising/journalism, corporate communications, public relations/marketing, research, as well as professional and technical writing and teaching. Students with a double major or minor in English have an employment edge because of valuable communication, critical thinking, and problem solving skills gained through this program.

Requirements for English Majors

Students must earn an overall 2.0 cumulative grade-point average as well as a 2.5 in EH prefix courses. Transfer students must complete a minimum of 15 credit hours in English at Husson to be eligible for graduation.
