

CERTIFICATE - BUSINESS ANALYTICS

Business analytics is all about problem solving. Students pursuing a graduate certificate in business analytics will use tools from computer science, mathematics, statistics, and communications to collect, organize, and analyze material that explains problems, and to interpret and communicate what they've learned in order to make informed decisions and improve organizational performance.

These certificate courses can be applied toward an MBA degree at Husson University or be used to augment prior learning.

Required Courses

IT 600	Computer Programming for the Professional	3
IT 601	Business Analytics Essentials for the Professional	3
IT 602	Data Exploration and Visualization in Business Applications	3
IT 605	Data Mining for Business Analytics	3
IT 610	Database Design for the Professional	3
Total Hours		15